WEBSITE UPDATE...

Announcing our New Recipe Blog!

 But first... I added an Alphabetical List of all Recipes. "i" for Index. No more fumbling around trying to remember what it was called or when it was posted. Just click on the a Floating "i" Button on any page to produce the Recipe Index. With over 160 published recipes, the site needed an Index.

It seems like it took forever but I FINALLY got all of the software modifications in place to begin publishing my Recipe BLOG. It will focus on all things related to Youngstown Recipes both past and present. It wasn't enough to just post our favorite Youngstown Recipes with a pretty picture or two, but I wanted to talk a bit more about them, their origins and all of the traditions we remember growing up.

 So consider this as the official launching of OUR Blog. I hope to provide an extra helping of Youngstown Cuisine with side dishes of memories, cooking tips, and techniques unique to our Northeastern Ohio region. Just go to the website and click on BLOG in the main menu or on the image below.

Please join me and share the Ramblings of a Youngstown Kid who likes to cook.

Currently, we have over 600 Registered Subscribers who visited the main page of the website over 4,300 times. And we've just gotten started. If you haven't told your family & friends about us, what are you waiting for??? It's FREE. You know... If each of us only got one extra person to subscribe we could be 1,200 members strong. They don't have to be current or former natives of Y-town. We are open to anyone with an interest in the Recipes that are special to NE Ohio, across the country, or even around the world. We just happen to think Youngstown Cuisine is the best. Period.

Want to contribute a recipe? Or have a suggestion about how the site works? Just email it to me by clicking HERE.

And, of course, I'm very interested in what you think of the website - how it works - what's good about it - what's missing - etc. Write and let me know.

I sincerely hope your experience on the new website is enjoyable.

Please feel free to Share this Newsletter with your friends, neighbors, and, of course, your fellow NE Ohio natives. Everyone's Welcome!
